

Bespoke musical journeys.

The difference is in the listening.

FOR PRACTITIONERS, SPAS, BATHHOUSES & RETREAT HOSTS

A journey, not a formula.

A playlist gathers individual songs. A bespoke musical journey attends to the relationship between them - the transitions, the spaciousness, the emotional contour, and how the experience unfolds from beginning to end.

I shape music into a complete experience, considering the setting, the session length and the intention. The starting point is always listening.

With care, Roshin

Music that meets your practice.

01 / Curated Music Journeys

Music selected and sequenced for practitioners, spas, bathhouses and retreat hosts. Each journey is shaped around the setting, session length and intention, with attention to transitions, pacing and the progression of a complete experience.

02 / Live Music Journeys

Roshin selects and mixes music live for group experiences, working with the host on the format and responding to the room as the session unfolds. Journeys may centre on stillness, movement or a blend of both.

In their own words.

“I had the pleasure of spending a day in the jungle with Roshin. I had many fears going into it and left the experience with none. He seemed to have a great intuitional awareness and Created a very comfortable space.

His knowledge, general demeanour and curate music was soothing which led to feeling at ease speaking about some of my darkest memories and traumas of combat and addiction. Overall I couldn't have asked for a better experience.”

Matt

“If I could describe my experience with Roshin, the word that came to me is “clarity”. I felt much clearer the next day of the workshop on many different levels that weren't so visible before working with them.

I saw the connection of why I behaved in a certain way and why certain things kept repeating the way they did in my life. It is astonishing to come to the realisation that all it needed was a deeper look. I feel there are more layers to be opened and more answers to be discovered inside of myself with the music he curated.”

Swati

“I feel blessed to have had this experience with Roshin and am very thankful. Their energy, kindness and experience made it an easy safe wonderful experience.

I feel content, calm, happy, cleaner and different. The music was so beautiful and gentle. It seemed like only 1 hour and I feel sure the time in nothing will gently reveal more gifts to me.”
